

Axel Johnson

Axel Johnson was born in Sweden on April 21, 1890, and died Tuesday, October 8, 1918, after several years suffering from ænema. He was confined to his bed for the past eight weeks. He was married June 24th, 1914, and resided for four years at Minneapolis where he worked at his trade as contractor. He is survived by his wife and two sons, his mother living in Sweden and a sister in Minneapolis. Funeral services were held Thursday, October 10th, in the Saron Free Church, Rev. Lunde and Rev. Pihlblad officiating. A host of friends extend sympathy to the bereaved family.
