

Peter S. Lyle received a telegram from Washington Saturday that his son Robert had been killed in action in France July 15th.