

Agnes Michaelson, fourteen years of age, died at the home of her mother ten miles west of town, last week, after suffering for some time from tuberculosis. She recently returned from an extended stay in Montana where she had sought to improve her health, but without avail. The funeral was held Monday, June 10th, and interment was made in Mabel Lutheran cemetery. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of all in their affliction.