

J. T. Regner, of Cooperstown, died Saturday evening, of influenza complicated with bronchial pneumonia. He was on the point of moving to Detroit, Mich., to make his future home, and Mrs. Regner had already gone there, but arrived here Sunday morning on her way back to Cooperstown.