

Mr. Julius Sevareid, a prominent business man of Luverne, died in Luverne on Tuesday, October 29, the cause of his death being influenza complicated with pneumonia. A large gathering of friends and relatives attended the funeral services which were held on Thursday, October 31st. Interment was made in the cemetery, Rev. Sigurd Olsen officiating. Deceased leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss. Mr. Sevareid was a worthy citizen and a good, religious man. His loss is a distinct loss to the community, and a deep bereavement to his family and friends.