

Olga Elisa Stai

Sentinel Courier: Olga Elisa Stai, 23 years old, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Stai, Monday evening, April 29, after a lingering illness with consumption. Her sister, Amalia Stai, whose funeral was held on March 23, and an older sister, died several years ago, from the same disease.

Funeral services were held at the Union Lutheran church Wednesday, May 1, at 2 p. m., Rev. Sigurd Olsen officiating, and the remains were laid to rest beside those of her sisters, in the Union cemetery.

The services were largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends and the floral tributes were beautiful.

Deceased was the last of a family of three girls, and her death was undoubtedly hastened by the passing away of her sister but a few weeks ago, the two girls in the time of health and strength being inseparable and devoted to each other.

Deceased is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Stai, the latter being in very poor health, and the death of her two daughters, adding greatly to the burden her frail body bears.

Mr. and Mrs. Stai have the sympathy of the entire community in their deep and abiding sorrow, and which time the great healer, alone can make lighter.
