

Harvey Thomsen, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Thomsen, was taken suddenly ill Tuesday morning from a relapse of the whooping cough and died before the doctor could reach the Thomsen home. The funeral was held on Thursday, March 14th, interment being made in St. Olaf's cemetery at Wilton. Rev. P. A. Thoreson spoke at both the house and church. Many beautiful floral offerings were given.
