

The sad news was received here last week of the death of John Van Scoik's oldest girl at Jamestown. It seems that Mr. Van Scoik had arisen early and prepared his own breakfast, and gone to his work. Later fire broke out in the house and before it was discovered it had advanced so far that it was impossible to save the little girl who was blind. The Van Scoik's lived for about a year in Hannaford, where Mr. Van Scoik worked at his trade as a carpenter and builder, removing to Jamestown last fall. The family has the sympathy of all in this great loss and bereavement.
