

Miss Frances McKean Lauder, formerly a teacher in the Hannaford schools, and a daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. S. Lauder of Wahpeton, was united in marriage to Captain Harold H. Ambler of LaGrange, Ill., in Paris, France, by the mayor of the city on July 1. The wedding is the culmination of a romance which began when the young people were students at the University of Wisconsin at Madison. Shortly after their engagement, war was declared and Miss Lauder immediately volunteered as a Red Cross nurse, and was sent to Paris, and Captain Ambler entered the first officers' training school at Fort Sheridan, Ill., where he received his commission. When the couple met in Paris, the wedding ceremony was performed.
