

Saby-Evenson

A quiet home wedding ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Evenson on Thursday Nov. 15th, 1917, when Clara Saby was united in marriage to Mr. Mandley Evenson in the presence of a number of the relatives of the contracting parties. Rev. P. A. Thoreson performed the wedding ceremony.

Both of these young people are well and favorably known in this community and need no introduction to Enterprise readers. They left the same day on a wedding trip to various points in Saskatchewan, Canada, where they will visit relatives till after the holidays.

Several of their friends were on hand at the depot and upon boarding the train the newly-weds were treated to a veritable deluge of rice, and even the by-standers and trainmen were liberally springled with handfuls of rice that were inaccurately aimed.

The many friends of the bride and groom unite in wishing them a long, pleasant and prosperous life.
