

Westley-Flesjer

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Westley at noon, Wednesday, Nov. 14th. The contracting parties were Miss Jeannette Westley and Mr. Palmer Flesjer. Rev. J. C. Wilson was the officiating clergyman who tied the nuptial knot pronouncing the ceremony which united the lives of these estimable young people of our village. The wedding was a quiet one, witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the bride.

The young people are both well known in this community, the bride having for the past two years been assistant at the post office and the groom has for a number of years clerked in Claus Jackson's store. They left the same day, amid a generous sprinkling of rice showered upon them by a number of their friends gathered for the purpose, on a wedding trip which will include several points in Minnesota, after which they will return to Hannaford and make their home in the house recently vacated by A. F. Kencke.

The Enterprise joins with their numerous friends in extending congratulations and best wishes.
