When Christ Hanson left the fore part of last week for Montana, there i was not a single one of his friends here who suspected that he was going away to be married. When he . and his bride returned last Saturday he surprised every one by announcing that he had been married at Glasgow. Mont., on Tuesday, Feb. ž 26. Mr. Hanson had formerly farmed in the Glasgow vicinity and had become acquainted with his present wife at that time. The Enterprise joins their many friends in extending best wishes and congratulations.
