

Hill-Anderson

On July twenty-ninth a very pretty wedding took place at the farm home of O. A. Anderson, two miles west of Sutton when his daughter Florence Mildred became the bride of Homer Lysander Hill of Marion, N. D. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. A. Thoreson of Hannaford under an improvised altar.

The bride was gowned in white satin with georgette overdrape and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by Mabel Olson of Sutton and Ann Wilson of Detroit, the former gowned in pink organdy and the latter in blue organdy, both carrying shower bouquets.

The groom was attended by Clarence Ebentier of Sutton.

Verna Anderson, sister of the bride, played the wedding march.

After the ceremony a four-course dinner was served under a large tent on the lawn to about 125 guests. The tent was tastefully decorated in a color scheme of pink and white.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. Coyle, of Minneapolis, sister of the groom; Miss Clauson, of Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer Olson, of New Rockford; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Solberg, Cooperstown; and Dr. and Mrs. Ringlee, Binford.

The bridal couple left for a tour to the twin cities where they will spend some time before returning to Marion, N. D., where they will make their future home.
