

Johnson-Peterson

A happy culmination of a romance started several years ago at St. Olaf College, took place at Pelican Rapids, Minn., December 31st, when at the home of the bride's parents in that city Miss Olna Peterson and Albert I. Johnson of Hannaford were united in the bonds of holy wedlock.

The groom is one of the best and most favorably known young men of this community, having grown to manhood here and lived here all his life with the exception of several years attending college and a year in overseas service.

The bride is a young lady of high accomplishments, who will make a worthy helpmate through life.

The newlyweds will live on the groom's fine farm southeast of Hannaford.

The Enterprise joins with the many other friends in wishing them a long and happy married life.
