

ment.

Ludvig Larson and Miss Amanda Swingen were united in marriage at Minot, on Thursday, February 14th. Mr. Larson has for a number of years conducted the Larson & Elliot store at Revere, and Miss Swingen has taught school in this community for a number of terms. They will make their future home at Revere. A host of friends wish them happiness, and that a full measure of prosperity may be theirs.

O. M. Westley spent Monday in