

A Steele County Wedding

Rev. S. Olson of Cooperstown, was over near Laverne, Steele county, Wednesday officiating at a wedding which was one of the most elaborate services of the kind ever held in that vicinity.

The couple that by his words was launched upon the matrimonial sea is Peter E. Nelson, a farmer living southward of Laverne, and Miss Lyda Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Peterson, who are pioneer farm folk of that locality. The bride has been a teacher, having recently presided over what is known as the Park school, eastward from this city in Steele county.—Sentinel-Courier.
