

Julius Brekke met with a painful accident last Wednesday when he fell from the roof of Geo. Knauss' house where he was putting up rain caps. He sustained two broken ribs and will be laid up for a few days. The accident was due to the breaking of a ladder.

Next Sunday July 12th there will