

Wm. G. Brown received a telegram Tuesday advising him that his mother was very low. Mr. Brown left immediately for the old home at Branch, Wis., to be with his mother during her illness.