

Godfrey Christianson, of Mawer, Sask., has been visiting his brother Otto Christianson east of town since the 23rd. Mr. Christianson used to live here but moved to Canada three years ago, and likes it so well there that he will continue to reside there. He will spend the winter months with his brother here.

Every single man who received