

Rural School Notes

Greenfield District No. 2.

Goplen School, Laura Fogderud, Teacher. Helen Everson, Clara, Ella, Hans, Selma, Sophia and Oliver Haugen; Lillian O'Brian; Mary and Herman Stromme; and Eleanor McLellan have had perfect and punctual attendance this week. The Seventh Grade Literature class, is now studying "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow." The Reader has been completed. The First Grade A class has completed two Readers and is now studying Brooks Readers. The First, Second and Third grades have been making Easter Baskets and Bunnies. Eva Fogderud and Mr. and Mrs. Fogderud visited school. Mrs. Fogderud gave us another delicious treat which we enjoyed very much. Good Friday was observed by us as a holiday.

Helena District No. 3.

Steinborn School, A. C. Paulson, Teacher. We have given our school yard its annual clean up, and had all the ashes hauled away. Anton Paintner has left school for spring work. Clarence Paintner is not attending school on account of sickness. We are all glad to be able to play outside again. Our yard has dried off nicely, but we wish it was larger. The Fourth Grade has commenced work in their new readers and are well pleased with them.

Revere School, Agda Olson, Teacher. Hans and Peter Mogaard were absent all last week. The following pupils are entitled to receive three months' perfect attendance certificates, Myrtle, Hilda, Mabelle, and Selma Mogard, Albert Olson, Kermit, Ruby and Vera' Olsen, Arthur and Hazel Lepper, Myrtle Koukal, Ruth Richardson, Glen and Inez Richardson. Those who should receive nine months' certificates are Glen, Inez and Ruth Richardson; Vera, Ruby, Albert and Kermit Olsen.

Sverdrup District No. 16.

Westley School, Ruth Josephson, Teacher. We have had only one absence this week. Alice Erickson visited our school on Tuesday. The Eighth Grade has just completed the study of "Julius Caesar."
