

Rural School Notes

Greenfield District No. 2.

Goplin School, Laura Fogderud, Teacher. The Third Grade has completed "Baldwin & Bender's" Third Reader and is now studying "Brook's Reader" and "Story Hour Reader." Orville Goplin, Ella Hans and Hazel Haugen, Alma and Olga Kaastad, Mary Stromme and Oliver Haugen have had perfect and punctual attendance for three weeks. Clara and Selma Haugen received perfect attendance certificates for the month of March. Mrs. J. H. Haugen and Martin Haugen visited school, one day last week. They brought some new desks.

Stromme School, Edna Thoreson, Teacher. The pupils who have had perfect attendance this month are: Oline and Einar Kaastad, Eugenia and Evelle Nelson, Theodore, Mary and Margaret Potvin. The Social given at our schoolhouse, March 21, proved a success. The sum of $80.-30 was received. We are going to purchase a new flag pictures and phonograph records with the money. We have had two visitors this week, namely Mr. Ole Kaastad and Harold Thoreson. The Eighth Grade has finished studying "Snowbound" and is now studying the poem "Thanatopsis" by William Cullen Bryant. Skating on the pond near the schoolhouse has been the favorite sport during the noon hour the past weeks. The pupils having perfect Spelling lessons for two weeks are, Olive and Olga Kaastad, Evelle and Eugenia Nelson, Thea Syverson and Theodore and Margaret Potvin.

Helena District No. 3.

Steinborn School. A. C. Paulson, Teacher. We now have only nineteen scholars as three have withdrawn. Attendance the past month has been extremely poor, as a great many of the pupils have been ill with a cold. Perfect attendance certificates for the month were granted to Marie Anderson, Charles and Edward Gartman, Margaret, Edward and Gertrude Wells, Marlon Paulson, and Jean and Hartvick Taxdal. Edward Gartman has received a Nine Months Perfect Attendance Certificate. Children who received 85 per cent or more in at least half of their subjects at the end of the month have the "Blackboard Privilege." This means that they may use the board for working on their lessons.

Sverdrup District No. 16.

Westley School, Ruth Josephson, Teacher. Rungvold Westley and Victor Wuffestad had perfect attendance certificates the past week. Beatrice and Lillian Tougas, and Inez Erickson had perfect Spelling Lessons the last two weeks. Linnea Olson, Jeannette Erickson, Orville Judas, Albert and Hilda Taxdal and Victor Wuffestad had perfect attendance last week. Miss Regner and Mr. Brown visited school. New song books were added to our equipment.

Ball Hill District No. 17.

Skjelset School, Edith Olson, Teacher. Jeannette and Pearl Njaa and Hazel Haaland have had perfect Spelling lessons the past week. Although our record of perfect attendance has improved it is far from what it should be. We had perfect attendance only one day last week.
