

County Rural School Notes

This week our school notes are not as complete as last week. The Thanksgiving holidays have delayed reports. We appreciate the news sent by the teachers and again we urge the teachers to send or telephone their notes Friday evening, if possible, or not later than Saturday morning, as the report must be prepared for the papers on Saturday. Certificates for three months' perfect and punctual attendance are being sent out from the County Superintendent's office this week. In last week's notes, by mistake we reported that Philip Wuffestad had not been absent from school one day while school was in session since he started seven years ago. This should have been Victor Wuffestad and we are glad to make the correction.

The reports this week are as follows:

Helena District No. 3.

School No. 1. Miss Theresa Stabnow reports the following who have been neither absent nor tardy since school started: Marion Paulson, Gertrude and Edward Wells, Edward and Charles Gartman. Those having perfect attendance during the month are, Gertrude and Edward Wells, Charles and Edward Gartman, Marion Paulson, Marie and Roland Anderson. Gertrude Wells received 100 per cent in her monthly examination in Spelling and Edward Gartman in Physiology.

School No. 2. Those in Miss Edith Sinclair's school who have received certificates for three months' perfect and punctual attendance are, Lizzie Campbell, Christ Sorenson, Dorothy and Clara Peterson. Visitors during the week were Mr. Fred Sinclair and Miss Marion Markwood.

School No. 3. Miss Dorrit Perrin reports perfect and punctual attendance for three pupils in the Revere School: Kermit, Vera and Albert Olson. There are 18 pupils now enrolled. Glen, Inez and Ruth Richardson have been present every day since school started except one stormy day when it was impossible for them to attend. A three-burner gasoline stove had been loaned to the school and they will begin having a warm noon lunch.

Ball Hill District No. 17.

School No. 1. Miss Laura Vatne has received 68 new text books for her school. On Wednesday afternoon a short Thanksgiving program was given.

School No. 2. Mr. Swen Haaland and Mr. John Watne called at the school last week and brought a complete set of new books. Mrs. Clark Campbell and Miss Alma Perne were visitors at Miss Steinborn's school last week.

School No. 4. Elsie Jenson, Christine Johnson and Esther Skjelset have had perfect attendance since school started. Miss Rosella Lee also reports that Esther Skjelset, Christine Johnson and Elsie Jenson (7th grade) and Alvilde Colberg (3rd grade) received an average of 90 per cent and above in all subjects last month. Elsie Jenson received 95 per cent and above in all subjects. Mr. Swen Haaland and John Watne visited school on Monday and brought a supply of new text books.
