

most automobile factories.

Pat Craig was the victim of a very serious accident last Friday afternoon. He was hauling a hog to town for August Werth when the horses became frightened and started to run away throwing Mr. Craig between the horses and the wagon. His right arm was broken near the wrist in such a manner that some of the bones protruded through the skin. He also sustained several smaller bruises, but the most serious injury is the broken arm.