F. L. Cross and J. Kruse have had telephones installed in their homes.

Mr. Duane Ross, who was seriously ill some time ago, is feeling first-rate now.

Anna B. Larson and Esther Pederson have spent the past week at Valley City.

School has been closed again, on account of the development of several new cases of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Mortensen spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives near Luverne.

Alfred and Howard Burroughs returned home after an extended stay in Iowa.

Mrs. Louis Krokum spent a few days at home last week. She had to return to St. Lukes Hospital again for further treatments.

Selma and Jacob Jacobson were called to St. Lukes Hospital to the bedside of their sister Alma who was reported worse. Another sister, Mrs. Rena Simenson, is improving rapidly which we are pleased to hear.

Last Tuesday, while filling the barn with hay, Wm. Micklethun met with a serious accident. In some way the carrier became detached, fell down and struck Mr. Micklethun's head and back, thus rendering him unconscious for a long time. At the time of this writing nothing more has been learned of his condition.
