

John Elvig has disposed of his farm together with all live stock to the original owner Ole Lima and will depart for Norway in June. Mr. Lima has rented the farm to Thomas Wormdahl who will take possession March 20th, while Mr. Elvig will move to Hannaford and occupy Mrs. Hanson's house until he leaves for the old country. Mr. Elvig's father recently died leaving a considerable estate, his mother is seventy-five and unable to manage the business, hence this change in plans.
