

Lieutenant J. Earl Fladeland, formerly publisher of the Luverne Leader, recently made a trip from Minneapolis to Portland, N. D., in a Curtis biplane which he had purchased. Automobiles used to be too slow for Earl, so perhaps now he has secured a machine more to his lik-