

• • • • •
• GREENFIELD NEWS NOTES •
• • • • •

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Stromme autoed up to Cooperstown on Thursday afternoon.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Haugen, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kittelson and Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Kalvig were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Harvey. An enjoyable evening was spent.

Mikal Haugen and Carl Stromme were in Hannaford Thursday morning. Mr. Stromme brought back his Ford which has been in the A.F.C. Garage, being overhauled.

John E. Rustad visited with the Pete Peterson family on Wednesday and on Thursday he visited with Ole Helmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Olson and Miss Marie Olson attended the Ladies Aid at the home of Mrs. Paul Troseth in Hannaford on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Stromme and Edna Thoreson were entertained at the Albert Johnson home Wednesday evening.

Anna Kaastad and Mabelle and Lillie Nelson, who are attending the Hannaford High School, spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Iver Haugen on Saturday, April 10th.

Spring's work has already commenced, although the days are still chilly and some frost is still in the ground.

Say, folks, did you notice who took a trip to Fargo, Friday evening???