

• • • • •
GREENFIELD NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

John Rustad walked to Hannaford and back again on Wednesday. Traveling wasn't very good, he said.

Mrs. Oscar Johnson returned to the home of her son, Francis Johnson, on Monday after visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Torvald Linde of Cooperstown.

Mikel Haugen and Bennie Haugen were Cooperstown visitors on Tuesday.

Walter Hemmingson was at Cooperstown on Tuesday, attending the I. V. A. Convention. He was elected as a delegate to go to the State Convention at Minot.

Nic Kaastad was a Hannaford visitor on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Johnson and Mrs. Oscar Johnson visited the Stromme school on Thursday afternoon.

Carl Knute was over to Francis Johnson on Thursday. He disappeared rather suddenly so that Gustet became quite anxious and searched over the whole farm for him.

Quite a number of people from his community were at Cooperstown Sunday, seeing the flights of the airplane. John Erickson took a trip from Cooperstown out to the farm and back again.

Information Wanted: Who is the biggest rubber neck on line 608?

Adolph Olson has been exercising his muscles chopping wood these last days.

Mr. Albin Forsberg has exchanged his Lally Light Plant for a Delec Light Plant.

Edith Olson, who is training at St. Lukes Hospital at Fargo, is back on duty after having had an operation.

A cow belonging to Fred Mosher was run over and killed by the Fast Mail train on Thursday.

The Sunday School will meet at the home of Henry Haugen on Sunday.

John Haugen spent Thursday visiting with his brother Johanner Haugen who has been sick for the past few days.