

* * * * *
GREENFIELD NEWS NOTES
* * * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Johan Haugen and daughter, Sophia were passengers to Cooperstown on Saturday.

John Rustad is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Knut Stromme.

Halvor Johnson of Barnes County was a Hannaford visitor on Saturday. Returning home he narrowly escaped an accident as the rear axle broke and upset the buggy. Luckily, helpful Carl was near at hand!

Mr. I. Potvin was in Hannaford on Saturday to meet his sons, Joseph and Ceril, who returned from Minneapolis after spending the winter here.

Walter Hemmingson and John Joplen left for Audubon, Minn., on Wednesday for a short visit with Hans Hanson and family.

Melvin Haugen visited with Sigurd Fliflet over Sunday.

Little Ernest Johnson is on the sick-list this week.

The Sunday school was held at the home of Ole A. Kaastad last Sunday. Next Sunday it will be held at the C. E. Stromme home.

The Walum teachers, Misses Minnie and Selma Olson, were at Hannaford between trains on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Stromme, Edna Thoreson, Mrs. Albin Forsberg, Gust Lind and son Algot, were entertained at dinner on Sunday at the Nels Olson home.

John Kittelson is visiting with Oscar Magnussen at Cooperstown.

Mr. and Mrs. John Haugen and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haugen and family were entertained at the Benjie H. Haugen home on Sunday.

Francis Johnson was a Cooperstown visitor between trains on Saturday.

Lydia Harvey and Carl Brudwick spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Kalvik.

On Thursday, Gust Lind moved his barn on the N. E. quarter of Section one to the S. W. quarter of Section one. The willing helpers were: Ole and Adolph Olson, Jacob and John Kittelson, Fred Jarr, and C. K. Stromme.