

• • • • •
GREENFIELD NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Mikal Haugen, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Haugen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haugen and Nels Olsen were Hannaford visitors on Tuesday.

Helleman Olsvoid is visiting at the Hans Haugen home.

Carl E. Stromme and Ole A. Kaastad were at Walum last Wednesday.

Andrew Kaastad went to the Pete Olgard farm on Monday. He expects to help with the spring's work.

Anna Kaastad spent Sunday with her folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kittelson visited with Mr. and Mrs. C.K. Stromme Sunday evening.

John H. Haugen went to Hannaford on Saturday and took his Ford truck home.

Hans Rasmussen is very ill with rheumatic fever.

Ladies should take advantage of the wonderful assortments of Ladies' Wear, Millinery, Suits, Coats, Dresses, Skirts, Waists, Shoes being shown at Syverson's, Cooperstown.

Walter Hemmingson visited at the Edwin Pousette home on Sunday.

Henning Anderson has hired a housekeeper for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans J. Haugen visited with Mrs. David Kalland on Tuesday.

Melvin Haugen returned to his home on Tuesday after an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Sig Fliflet.

Lars Harvey and Hilda Kalvik were married at Moorhead last Thursday. They returned Friday and on Saturday a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Kalvik. About sixty guests were present and partook of the sumptuous ropast which was served at high noon. Mrs. Harvey wore her wedding gown of lace over white satin and the long veil. Mr. Harvey wore the conventional black. Miss Lydia Harvey, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Melvin Helmer was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey are both young people of this community and well known. We all join in wishing them much joy and happiness through their wedded life.