

John Sad returned home Friday from Fargo where he had spent the past two weeks as attorney for the defendant in the State vs. Griesinger trial. Mr. Griesinger was acquitted of the charge of attempting to murder Freeman Curtis, the jury finding him not guilty after deliberating about twenty-four hours.