

A Patriotic Meeting will be held in Hannaford on Saturday evening, April 6th. Judge A. T. Cole of Fargo will be the speaker, and it is hoped that as many of the citizens of the village and community as possibly can, will attend. Also it is desired that on that day every residence and business place in town be decorated with flags. The occasion is the first anniversary of the entrance of the United States into the war, and every one should show the national colors on that day.
