

school children.

Prof. and Mrs. H. V. Ward have decided not to accept the positions offered them as Superintendent and Principal respectively of the Hannaford Schools next year. Mr. Ward will go into the automobile, real estate and insurance business in his home town, Ellendale, that occupation holding out greater promises for the future than the teaching profession.

... who has been the