

Hannaford School Notes

Hazel Larson, Editor

Those who had perfect attendance for the past school month are, Arthur Haugen, Alice Haugen, Arvid Palm, Harvey Sletten, Otto Olsson, Harry Knauss, Raymond Richardson, Viola Troseth, Clifford Ouren, Harriet Hagen, Ella Anderson, Vernon Sletten and Gerald Palm.

Those who get their certificate for three months' perfect attendance on Feb. 1, are Harry Knauss, Gerald Palm, Authur Haugen and Vernon Sletten.

Agnes Brudwick re-entered the first grade Monday morning after an absence of one month and a half.

Clara and Julius Christiansen have left school as they are moving away from town.

Lois Epler has been a visitor in the Primary room this week.

There will be a short Lincoln Program in the Primary room on Monday afternoon.

County Superintendent Tena P. Regner visited school on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Rev. J. C. Wilson visited school on Wednesday.

The Grammar room had only one and a half days of absences the past week. The enrollment is 25.

The Grammar room is making an active campaign in the buying of Thrift Stamps. The following have purchased them: Russel Richardson 1, Rachel Knauss 1, Myrtle Aarestad 1, Lillian Larson 4, Harry Westley 1, Robert Jones 10, Josephine Wilson 6, Carl Brudwick 4, Dorothy Angus 3, Marjorie Sinclair 7, Kenneth Curtis 3, Thelma Dunning 1, Myrtle Westley 4, Carl Haugen 4, Leonard Haugen 1. This makes a total of 59 stamps. Eugene Judge has one War Saving Stamp. Three of the children are owners of Liberty Bonds and twelve are members of the Red Cross.

The following pupils have had perfect Spelling for the week: Erick Antonsen, eBrnard Judge, Frederick Knauss, Agnes Westley, Othelia Westley, Lydia Frydenberg. Fifth Grade, Jennie Loberg.

We have had several absences on account of bad colds this week.

The High School Drawing class has been working with clay pottery this week.

The English III Class is studying Burke's Speeh on Conciliation with the American Colonies.