

Hannaford School Notes

Edna H. Thoreson, Editor

Schol work was resumed on Monday, Jan. 7; after two weeks Christmas vacation.

The meeting of the Adelphi Literary Society was held last Wednesday evening and the following program rendered:

Song . . . . . Glee Club
Recitation . . . . . Lydia Thoreson
Humor . . . . . Dorothy Schmidt
Vocal Solo . . . . . Miss Anna Lunde
Reading . . . . . Eva Fogderud
Newspaper, Editor, William Westley; Assistant Editors, Hazel Peterson, Wilmer Wilson.

Reading . . . . . Miss Lykken
Song . . . . . Society
Critique . . . . . Prof. Rice

The drawing class are making posters for the High School Play "Kindling the Hearth Fires."

The desks in the High School Assembly room have been rearranged.

Leonard Haugen has been promoted to the Sixth Grade.

Kenneth Curtis is a new member for the Red Cross in the Grammar Room.

Nora and Ingvald Cederson have been absent the past week because of illness.

The Seventh and Eighth Grades are making a thoro study of Whittier's "Snow Bound."

Anna Brudwick has been out of school all week on account of sickness.

School opened Monday morning in the Intermediate Room with 31 out of 32 pupils in their places.

The following pupils have had 100 in Spelling every day this week: 3rd Grade, Maria Hareland, Bernard Judge, Frederick Knauss, Helen Schmidt, Ole Troseth, Agnes Westley, Othelia Westley, Lydia Frydenberg. 5th Grade, Belle Beattie, Edna Haugen.

Gladys Richardson has left the first grade and entered the new consolidated school west of town.