Hannaford School Notes

Eva Fogderud, Editor

Emily Nevland, Genevieve Sinclair and Betsey Kalvik were absent on Friday on account of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Houghton visited the primary and intermediate rooms on Friday.

The following had perfect spelling lessons for the week: Third Grade, Marie Hareland, Helen Schmidt, Ole Troseth, Agnes Westley, Othelia Westley; Fourth Grade, Orlo Johnson; Fifth Grade, Lila Fogderud, Edna Haugen.

Each of the three intermediate grades had a spelldown Friday. Ole Troseth won the honors in the third grade, Raymond Jones in the fourth grade, and Robert Angus in the fifth.

Anna Brudwick is out of school on account of sickness.

The Literary Society was postponed until next Thursday evening.

Miss Alma Flaten visited the High School last Thursday.

Anna Anundson was absent last Friday.

The Freshmen entertained the High School and Faculty with a Costume Party in the Schoolhouse on Friday evening. The intermediate room was beautifully decorated with rose and green. During the evening Liberty and Japanese, Red Cross Nurses, Indian Squaws, Charley Chaplin, Ole Ogletnorpe, Highway men Larry, Pete and Jim, Sailor Jack, Ladies of '89, a Gipsy Queen, Clown, Quaker, Norske, Merry Widow and blight Fairies, joined in and played games, with only a few intermisions in which time they were pleasantly entertained by singing and a speech by the famous Ole Oglethorpe. At eleven a delicious lunch was served, after which the guests departed for their various homes, declaring the "Freshies" royal entertainers.

Adulterated and Misbranded Foods and Beverages.

I, E. F. Ladd, State Chemist and Food Commissioner for North Dakota, do hereby certify that the list of food products and beverages herein specified has been analyzed during the six months preceding Jan. 1st, 1918, and the same found to be adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Statute as shown in each individual case.

I further affirm that this is a true and correct list to the best of my knowledge.

E. F. LADD,
