Phyllis Schmidt, Editor-in-Chief

Three days left of school and then

—Oh, you vacation!

Local examinations for the High School will be over to-morrow at eleven bells. Everyone is waiting for them to ring.

Remember the Class Day Program scheduled for to-morrow night, June 2, at EIGHT O'CLOCK SHARP. Everybody welcome! At Jackson's Hall.

Lost—The ability to conjugate French verbs. Finder please return to Harry Richardson.

Commencement exercises Friday evening at 7:30 SHARP. Prof. A. D. Weeks, Dean of School of Education, N. D. A. C., will deliver the Commencement address while the H. S. Chorus will render a few selections.

Wanted—Gymnastic work for finger exercises by Rachel Knauss, especially "while taking exams."

Big High School Picnic on Thursday. Everything in the line of 'eats' from dill-pickles to pumpkin pies.
