

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Mabelle Nelson, Editor-in-Chief

We are sorry to see the trees go for they are leaving (out.)

Warning—Please don't use the ruler so much.

Julia Johnson is reported to be seriously sick.

Wanted—A nap Apply to Russel Richardson and P. S.

Puzzle 1—Why does Eleanor look up so many words in Webster's "Dick."?

The French II class is deep in the horrible waters of verb conjugation preparatory for final exams.

New Music: Try "Slipper on the Piano," composed by Anna Kaastad and Russel Richardson.

One of the members of the General Science class capped the climax of a test by signing her name "A Man."

The Binford Twins, Myrtle A. and Rachel, have their heads together a lot now, (Since the ball game last Sunday.)

For Rent—A number of smiles practically new and in good condition, prices reasonable. Eleanor Cederson.

Professor and Mrs Ward went to Ellendale last week. They left Friday and returned on Sunday, having made the trip in their new Cleveland.

You would think by the notes intercepted that Lillian L. and Annie were in the fishing business as it was about "smacks." We suppose they meant fishing smacks.

Something is "brewing" in the minds of our respectable Juniors. We are waiting patiently for the outcome, but we sincerely hope that they will remember that North Dakota is "dry."

New Hair Dressing Establishment
Ione Johnson, Manager Office H. S. Assembly. Hours 10 to 12 a. m. 2 to 4 p. m. Rules: People wishing to have facial massages and be shampooed must make "date" three days previous to date. Hair provided by the applicant. A good "Primp" guaranteed. She will "Trim You Pretty"