Bertha Wilson, '18, editor

Gerald Anderson returned to school after being absent eight days on account of an attack of whooping cough.

Julius and Clara Christianson have enrolled in the first and second grades bringing the total enrollment of the Primary room up to 38.

The Primary, Intermediate and Grammar rooms earned a half holiday Friday for having an average of 95 per cent or above, in perfect attendance for the month.

The monthly examinations were given Thursday and Friday.

On last Monday evening the Literary Society gave a program. A good many of the townspeople were present. One of the interesting features was a debate on Woman's Suffrage between Mr. Nickerson and Louis Peterson on the affirmative and Rev. Wilson and Asher Anderson on the negative. The decision was two to one in favor of the negative.

Oliver Thoreson returned to school Monday after being absent the week previous on account of his accident. He had to use crutches at first.

Myrtle Aarestad was absent Thursday forenoon.

No Glee Club practice was held last week.

The Grammar room has had only two tardinesses the past month.

There are now one hundred seventeen pupils enrolled in school, an increase of five over last year.

Several of the High School students have subscribed to the Literary Digest, for the school year at club rates.
