

Fred Hareland left Sunday morning for his home at Redstone, Mont., having spent several months in this vicinity. Mr. Hareland was very fortunate this year in getting a crop of flax on his Montana farm; rain arriving just in time to save the crop. Fred says he intends to spend the winter in North Dakota, probably at Minot.