

Ludvig Hareland returned Sunday from Duluth, Minn., where he has been employed in the shipyards. Mr. Hareland feels that now the urgency of war construction is past, he is entitled to remain at home and devote his time to his own interests.