

Ludvig Hareland was the victim of a painful accident Monday morning while working on the new barn of Jacob Vatne. The ladder slid over and Mr. Hareland fell down with a heavy timber on his shoulder, injuring the shoulder so that he will be unable to work much in some time.

---