

R. E. Harris's dray team staged a run-away yesterday, starting out from the G. N. Depot. No one was hurt but the wagon pole and the reach were broken, and a telephone pole which happened to be in the way was smashed up.