

great as though they were still in our midst. They are no less a part of their home communities and should be given evidence that their welfare has first consideration in the hearts of their co-workers at home."

AUCTION SALE

I will sell at public auction on the Frederick Neilson farm 3 miles east and half a mile south of Walum, the following described property, on Friday, March 1st, 1918

One iron grey gelding coming 9 years; One iron grey gelding coming 10 years; One bay gelding coming 6 years; One black gelding coming 10 years; One iron grey gelding coming 5 years; One iron grey gelding coming 6 years; One black gelding coming 4 years; One bay mare coming 4 years; One dark grey mare coming 3 years; One grey mare coming 7 years; One sorrel gelding coming 11 years; One bay gelding coming 9 years; One black gelding coming 5 years; One grey gelding coming 8 years; One bay gelding coming 8 years; One roan mare coming 5 years; One grey mare coming 3 years; One black mare coming 5 years.

Four Good Milch Cows

Two 8-ft. McCormick binders.
One Van Brunt 16-disc press drill.
Two John Deere 14-inch gang plows.
One Bradley 14-inch gang plow.
Three truck wagons with racks.
Two high wheel wagons. One spring tooth harrow. Two sets heavy breeching harness. Three sets good work-harness. One 16 single disc drill. One single buggy. One single harness. Three sets driving harness. One smut machine. One Sattley gang plow. One horse potato digger. One tank heater, and numerous other articles.

Free Lunch. Sale starts at 12:00
Terms of Sale. All sums under $10, cash; over that amount time will be given to Oct. 1, 1918, on bankable paper.

BENNIE M. HAUGEN, Owner
J. A. H. Winsloe, Auctioneer
O. E. Thoreson, Clerk.

The assessed valuation of all property in Griggs county is almost exactly six million dollars, total taxes raised about $203,000 making the average rate in this county not quite 34 mills.

We need more good notes. Wm.
Angus, Cashier.

A. M. BALDWIN

Word was received here Wednesday, Feb. 13, that Attorney A. M. Baldwin had died that morning at the Nelson Sanitarium in Fargo.

Mr. Baldwin had been suffering with inflammatory rheumatism for the past six months. About three weeks ago he went to Minneapolis and had his tonsils removed, and was on his way to New Mexico to spend the remainder of the winter in a milder climate, but on the train he took a turn for the worse and at Fargo had to be taken to the sanitarium. He had contracted pneumonia, and in his weakened condition he