

Matt Haugen, who has been the efficient representative of the Standard Oil Co., at this point for several years past, left last Saturday for Fargo where he has a better job with the same firm. Mr. Haugen wishes, through the columns of the Enterprise to thank his many customers in this vicinity for their liberal patronage, and hopes they will treat his successor as liberally. Matt leaves a good many friends here who are sorry to see him go, but rejoice in his well-deserved promotion. •
