

Hannaford again has a resident dentist in the person of Dr. Oscar H. Hoffman, of Cooperstown, who has decided to locate here. He has had some experience at his profession at Devils Lake before coming here, and is thoroughly familiar with the latest methods of practice in that profession. Not all of his equipment has arrived yet, but he is already equipped to do most kinds of work in his line.