

Ole J. Kalvik has sold out his dray line in this village to Oscar A. Nelson. Mr. Kalvik has built up a fine business and his many friends will regret his decision to sell out. Mr. Nelson will, however, endeavor to continue to give the same prompt and efficient service as the patrons of the dray line have been used to in the past.

---