

• • • • •
KARNAK NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Those who attended church at Hannaford Sunday morning were: E. W. Trapp, Howard and Jennie Rising and Don Healy.

Mrs. Don Healy is caring for Mrs. Claud Ross.

John Kerber and Jacob Kittelson are doing mason work for John Curtis.

John Curtis went to Fargo for medical aid last week.

Little Kermit Mosher is sick with scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Kravig and Nora Dodd attended the "Class Play" at Cooperstown Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kallander were in Cooperstown Saturday evening.

The Crane-Johnson Co. are remodeling the interior of their lumber shed and office, making it more handy and up-to-date.

Ole Kravig has sold quite a few new drills and drags and the purchasers speak very highly of the E. B. Machinery.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Houghton and Oscar Magnussen, of Cooperstown, spent Sunday at M. Magnussen's.

School opened in the Freer school last Thursday after being closed almost a month on account of Miss Dodd having scarlet fever.

Miss Edith Dodd left Friday afternoon for Luverne where she will visit for a few days.

Little Hazel Kerber was taken to Fargo Saturday for medical aid, she having had an attack of appendicitis. Miss Hilda Kerber accompanied her.

Miss Nora Dodd and Mrs. Fred Peterson were in Hannaford between rains Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fieber and family and Mrs. Jacob Sigle were in Valley City over Sunday.

Mr. Williams and Mr. Baker made a trip to Eckelston Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hogness and Helen visited relatives near Dazey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Olson and family expect to leave Monday morning for their future home in Washington. All good wishes go with them.

The young people of this and Ladbury communities are putting on a play in the near future. We all wait with hopes of being truly entertained when this comes off.

Misses Grace and Edith Dodd and friends from Luverne called at Peterson's Sunday.