

The Karnak News

The Karnak Ladies Aid met with Mrs. O. Harris on Thursday of last week.

Services were held morning and evening Sunday.

Herman H. Helland has sold his Ford runabout and has purchased a touring car.

The new church is well under way, and we are all looking forward to the time when we will have a real place for Sunday school and service.

Herbert Curtis has arrived from Montana with his stock and machinery, intending now to make this state his home.

Alfred Magnussen was again taken to the hospital at Valley City where he is suffering with paralysis.

O. L. Ludvig, our Great Northern agent, has been relieved from his duties for a few days and has gone to his home at Selz.

Mrs. Don Healy is helping Mrs. Mark Curtis for a few days.

G. Sharpe, our former Farmers' Elevator manager, made us a pleasant call Wednesday. He has spent about sixteen months in Honolulu.

John Kerber is having his buildings re-painted; Carl Nelson wielding the brush.

Several from here attended the Sale at the Mills Farm near Hannaford Wednesday.

Earl Houghton arrived here Friday evening with three horses which he purchased from O. S. Ludvig at Selz.

The early risers at Karnak had the pleasure of hearing and seeing an aeroplane pass over town Saturday morning.

Fred Peterson is receiving a visit from his brother, who is on his way to the harvest fields.