

The Karnak News

Howard Rising is visiting friends etc. in Campbell, Minn.

Freeman and Hattie Curtis left for Rochester, Minn., Wednesday evening, where Hattie will seek medical aid.

Edgar Curtis went to Fargo Wednesday evening.

Plenty of coal in town. Two carloads of hard and soft coal arrived last week.

Mr. Youngbeck ate his Thanksgiving dinner at Sutton, N. D.

Misses Anna and Mary Kerber spent Thanksgiving at home.

Nick Kacstad and Bennie Kalland spent last week in Duluth, Minn.

The Karnak Ladies Aid will hold their dinner and sale in the basement of the Karnak church, Dec. 11. Dinner will be served from 11:30 until 1:00, and then the sale will begin at once. A large number of useful and valuable articles will be sold which will meet the needs of Christmas shoppers. An invitation is extended to all.

Ellen Johnson came home from Fargo Thursday to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

All children who wish to take part in the Christmas program must attend the Sunday School. If the supplies reach here before Sunday the program will be begun as far as possible.

Hilmer Carlson spent the Thanksgiving week at his home in Finley.

John Wicks did some butchering for Fred Mosher Monday.